

Douglas J. Moore

Member

400 Poydras Street, Suite 2700
New Orleans, Louisiana 70130
dmoore@irwinllc.com
504.310.2163
504.310.2101 fax

Practice Description

Douglas practices in the areas of general casualty, insurance, products liability, and professional liability defense, as well as pharmaceutical, medical device, and toxic tort litigation. He has assisted in the defense of mass torts in both the class action and MDL contexts, in areas such as pharmaceutical litigation, toxic torts, and business / professional liability.

Douglas has authored and co-authored journal articles as well as seminar manuscripts for professional institutes and associations around the country.

Activities, Affiliations, and Accomplishments

Douglas is a member of the Louisiana State Bar Association, Federal Bar Association, New Orleans Bar Association, Defense Research Institute, and Louisiana Association of Defense Counsel. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of the New Orleans Chapter of the Federal Bar Association. He is also a national member of the Order of the Barristers. Douglas is admitted to practice before all Louisiana state courts, the United States Court of Appeal for the Fifth District, and the United States District Courts for the Eastern, Middle, and Western Districts of Louisiana.

During law school, Douglas advanced to the “Final Four” in Loyola’s Moot Court Intramural Competition, and was awarded the Best Preliminary Oralist in the First Amendment Moot Court Competition at American University Law School and Best Oral Advocate in Competition at the National Moot Court Competition of the Bar of the City of New York, Regional Competition in Memphis. He was awarded the Law Excellence Awards for earning the highest grades in Insurance Law and Criminal Law.

Douglas served as an adjunct professor of law in Moot Court at Loyola University School of Law in New Orleans. He regularly appears as a guest judge in various Moot Court and Trial Advocacy Programs, including the John R. Brown Appellate Admiralty Moot Court Competition, the LSBA Young Lawyers Section’s Louisiana Trial Competition, and the Tulane Law School Mardi Gras Invitational Sports Law Moot Court Competition.

Douglas has successfully completed the International Association of Defense Counsel’s Trial Academy at Stanford Law School in Palo Alto, California.

Education

Douglas received his B.S. (1993) from Florida State University, where he majored in Finance and Real Estate. He received his J.D. (2001) from Loyola University School of Law.

Publications

Douglas J. Moore, The Potential Evidentiary Impact of the Supreme Court's Due Process Analysis of Punitive Damages Awards, ABA Mass Torts News Letter, Fall 2005.

James B. Irwin & Douglas J. Moore, How to Persuade a Jury to the Defense View of Key Issues in Drug or Medical Device Litigation, Manuscript of the DRI: Drug and Medical Device Litigation Seminar (San Francisco, CA, May 2002)

James B. Irwin & Douglas J. Moore, Effective Use of Documentary Evidence, CLE Manuscript of the Civil Litigation Process in Louisiana State Courts Seminar, Louisiana State Bar Association (Baton Rouge, LA, April 2004)

Douglas J. Moore, Legal Malpractice of the Business Lawyer and Litigator, Seminar Manuscript published of Hot Topics in Business Litigation, Professional Education Systems Institute, LLC (Metairie, LA, March, 2004)