

Premises Liability

The Irwin Fritchie Premises liability group defends property owners when accidents occur on their property. Our lawyers have handled matters arising at retail establishments, industrial facilities, grocery stores, public facilities, restaurants and bars, convenience stores, hotel and apartment complexes, educational institutions, railroad properties, and nursing homes, among others.

Our experience allows us to provide thorough and realistic case assessments early, enabling our clients to make informed decisions about resolution before significant trial expenses are incurred. When a matter cannot be resolved, our clients receive the benefit of our substantial trial experience to achieve the best possible result.
