FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEW ORLEANS, LA (August 9, 2023) – Irwin Fritchie Urquhart Moore & Daniels, LLC, is proud to announce that Celeste Coco-Ewing has joined the firm’s defense litigation team.

“Celeste’s accomplishments over the course of her career speak for themselves,” stated Irwin Fritchie President, Timothy F. Daniels. “She is a remarkable strategist who holds a significant level of litigation experience across a wide range of industries, which has offered Celeste the ability to approach her practice with a considerable level of proficiency and versatility. I look forward to seeing the positive impact Celeste’s talents and unique perspective have on our already seasoned and highly respected team moving forward.”

As a litigator, Celeste Coco-Ewing has defended several large manufacturers in multi-week trials in state and federal courts across the country. Her practice focuses on complex litigation with a particular emphasis on product liability and environment and toxic tort cases. She has represented clients across various industries, including medical devices, pharmaceuticals, oil and gas, insurance, and consumer products. Her trial work has contributed to eight defense verdicts in jury trials in federal multidistrict litigation and state court consolidated proceedings.
