

News

John Sinnott presented on topic of Evidence at ACCEC annual meeting in

News

5.5.2016

On May 4, 2016, John Sinnott and Michael Huddleston of Munsch Hardt Kopf & Harr presented, Insurance Company Patterns and Practices - The Discovery and Admissibility of Evidence of "Other Claims" at the American College of Coverage and Extracontractual Counsel Annual Meeting in Chicago, Illinois. Their presentation was a review of potential uses and abuses of discovery of a carrier's handling of other related or similar claims and/or coverage positions taken in such claims, and consideration of recent decisional trends regarding discoverability and admissibility of such evidence.