Dear Friends:

We are writing to let you know that, as the global coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic evolves, we are well prepared to continue serving our clients in ways that safeguard the well-being of our clients and members of the Irwin Fritchie family.

All operations across the Firm in both our New Orleans and Baton Rouge offices continue uninterrupted. Our lawyers and staff are fully prepared to work remotely, accessing our systems with the same levels of security and availability as they would from the office, to continue providing high levels of service. Firm leadership has put into place protocols for when employees should work remotely and how we are communicating with clients. We are available by email, telephone, or video conferencing at your convenience.

Please do not hesitate to reach out to your contacts at the Firm with any questions or concerns. We hope that you and yours are staying healthy and safe.

Sincerely,

Irwin Fritchie Urquhart & Moore LLC
